

HEN NIGHT CASE STUDY

Mary's Hen Night! September 2008

Mary is getting married in October and she put her best friend and bridesmaid, Katy, in charge of organising the hen night to send her off in style! Mary was very sure that she didn't want to be in and out of pubs wearing a veil and L plates so Katy's challenge was to come up with a hen night with a difference!

Mary and 15 of her friends all came along to The Imagination Workshop in Marchmont Road, Edinburgh and made a charm bracelet each.

They spent a happy 2 hours designing and making an original piece of jewellery over drinks and nibbles. Once that was over they dived into taxis and went on to a meal in the centre of Edinburgh – all wearing their charm bracelets of course!

Katy said "We all had a fantastic time at The Imagination Workshop and we'll be back! The rest of the night was great, we all had our charm bracelets on and we could be heard for miles!"
